

75 discipleship questions

By Junior Saint-Val

Choose a few questions that fit the passage and the person. Listen patiently, allow someone to pass, and close with prayer and a practical next step. Audience groups are starting points; adapt questions as appropriate. No signup or purchase required.

Questions for anyone

1. What has stayed with you from Scripture this week?
2. What does this passage show you about Jesus?
3. What part of following Jesus feels difficult today?
4. Where have you noticed a reason to thank God?
5. What question about faith would you like to explore?
6. How has prayer actually looked in your week?
7. What is one thing you need to confess to God?
8. Whose forgiveness do you need to seek?
9. Who has helped you understand God's love?
10. What promise in this passage do you need to remember?
11. Where could your actions better match your words?
12. Who around you needs practical help?
13. What is one faithful step you can take before we meet again?
14. How can I support you without taking over?
15. What would you like us to pray about right now?

Questions for men

16. Where do you feel pressure to appear stronger than you feel?
17. What does Jesus' example of service challenge in you?
18. Who knows how you are doing beyond work and responsibilities?
19. How are you learning to listen before offering a solution?

20. What is shaping your understanding of success?
21. Where do you need to ask for help this week?
22. How do you respond when someone corrects you?
23. What would integrity look like in a private decision?
24. How are you treating people who cannot help your ambitions?
25. What relationship needs your patient attention?
26. How can you use strength or influence to serve someone?
27. What habit is making it harder to be present?
28. Where do you need to practice gentleness?
29. Who could you encourage without expecting recognition?
30. What does resting in God's care look like today?

Questions for women

31. Where do you feel pressure to prove your worth?
32. What helps you remember that you are welcomed by Christ?
33. Which responsibility do you need help carrying?
34. How are comparison and gratitude showing up in your week?
35. Where would an honest boundary help you love well?
36. What gift could you offer your church or neighborhood?
37. Who makes room to hear your questions about Scripture?
38. What does courage look like in your present season?
39. Where do you need to receive care instead of only giving it?
40. How does Jesus' attention to people shape your attention?
41. What expectation do you need to bring before God?
42. Which friendship could grow through a simple invitation?
43. Where are you learning to speak truth with kindness?
44. How can we celebrate someone else's good news together?
45. What would a faithful next step look like this week?

Questions for youth

46. What do you wish adults understood about your week?
47. Which part of this Bible story surprised you?
48. What question about Jesus are you hesitant to ask?
49. Where is it hard to belong without pretending?
50. How do your friends influence the choices you make?
51. What happens to your attention after time online?
52. Who at school might need a friend?
53. How do you handle being left out or misunderstood?
54. What would honesty look like in a difficult conversation?
55. Which adult could help with something that feels too big?
56. How could you show kindness when a group is being unkind?
57. What does prayer sound like when you use your own words?
58. Where do you see a chance to serve this week?
59. What helps you remember that failure is not your identity?
60. What would you like to ask God for today?

Questions for kids

61. What happened in the Bible story we just read?
62. What did Jesus say or do?
63. What is one thing you wonder about God?
64. What made you glad today?
65. What made you sad or worried?
66. Who was kind to you today?
67. Who could you be kind to tomorrow?
68. What can we thank God for together?
69. When was telling the truth hard?
70. Is there someone you need to say sorry to?

71. What does forgiving someone look like?
72. Who might need help or a turn to play?
73. How could we share something we have?
74. What would you like to pray about?
75. What would you like to remember from this story?

Before you leave: What do you want to remember? What can we pray about? When will we reconnect?

Read the complete guide: <https://goodsoildiscipleship.com/discipleship-questions>